ORDER

RONNIE ABRAMS, United States District Judge:

On August 17, 2021, the parties requested that the Court approve and retain jurisdiction over a proposed consent decree. See Dkt. 9. The proposed consent decree incorporates by reference a settlement agreement whose terms have not been made public. Id. ¶ 15. Although the parties offer to submit that agreement for in camera review, as noted in this Court's individual rules, the Court "will not retain jurisdiction to enforce confidential settlement agreements." See Individual Rules 5(B). Accordingly, if the parties wish that the Court retain jurisdiction to enforce a consent decree incorporating the terms of the settlement agreement, they must place those terms on the public record. Id. Any revised consent decree must be submitted within two weeks of the date of this order.

SO ORDERED.
